Dear Mr. Carr:

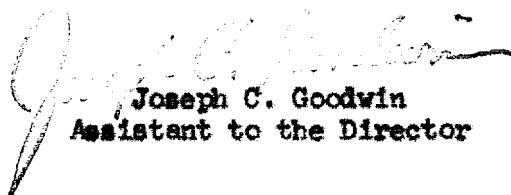

Thank you for your letter of August 28, 1967.
I regret that we cannot meet your request for information concerning training.

Because of the nature of its duties, required by law and by considerations of national security, the Central Intelligence Agency does not discuss its organization, personnel or operational methods.

I hope, however, that the attached brochure may give you some idea of how we go about recruiting personnel.

Your interest in this Agency is appreciated.

Sincerely,

Joseph C. Goodwin
Assistant to the Director
